SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Abstract

While the field of international education has made great strides in recent years with raising the number and the quality of impact evaluations, their results are incomplete without cost data for these interventions. Policy makers and donors cannot make fully informed decisions about the best way to invest limited resources without information about the costs of achieving desired outputs and outcomes through different interventions or delivery strategies. Evidence on the cost of interventions is also critical for making responsible decisions about scaling and sustaining programs within country systems. The USAID Office of Education is working to address this gap through systematic efforts to measure costs of USAID interventions. The proposed form is intended to collect such data. The form includes a section for collecting data on the amount and details of contributions of partner governments and non-governmental entities (private companies, NGOs, individuals) toward achieving objectives of USAID-funded education activities, and a section on collecting information on details of interventions. "Intervention" is defined as a discrete set of tasks performed by the USAID awardee that is expected to lead to specific education-related outcomes. The "contributions" are in-kind or monetary donations by the host government or non-governmental entity valued at or over $1,000 and essential to achieving activity objectives. "Dosage" refers to the amount of intervention a beneficiary receives. The data will be collected by USAID/Missions from USAID implementing partners using worksheets in the form which will be adjusted according to the scope of work of the USAID-funded activity. Implementing partners will be submitting data in a spreadsheet file. USAID/Washington and USAID/Missions will use the data collected through this form used alongside expenditure data in cost analyses of education activities to calculate cost-efficiency and cost-effectiveness of USAID-funded education interventions. The main purpose is to enable a transfer of effective education interventions to host governments. The secondary purpose is to improve future planning and budgeting by USAID Missions. These objectives are aligned with Congressional requirements under Foreign Aid Transparency and Accountability Act of 2016 and under Reinforcing Education Accountability in Development Act or the READ Act of 2018. They are also closely aligned with the Journey to Self-Reliance for countries where USAID operates.
